

Gold standard Business students in class of their own

GOLD medals were awarded to top business studies students in the country at a reception hosted by the Irish Banking Federation yesterday.

Four students from various secondary schools around the country were honoured with gold medals for their outstanding achievements in business studies in last year's Junior and Leaving Certificate examinations. The business studies teachers' association of Ireland awards ceremony was hosted by the Irish Banking Federation.

Our photograph shows, from left, Rachel O'Sullivan from Ardscoil Phobal Bheantraí, Co Corcaigh, Laraine Creed from An Gairm Scoil Ghobnatan, Baile Bhuirne, Maigh Cromtha, Co Corcaigh, Simon Doran from Gorey Community School, Co Wexford, and Rebecca Bourke from Villiers School, Co Limerick.

MAXWELLS